

U. S. STEEL BOOSTS PRICE FOR RAILS UP TO $43 A TON

Increase of $8, Effective Oct. 1, Follows 20 Per Cent. Raise in Wages.

Notice of an advance in price of steel rails by the United States Steel Corporation, which has been expected since the company announced a 20 per cent. increase in wages, was made public today. A bulletin from the office of Judge Gary, Chairman of the board, dated yesterday, "recommended to" (which means directed) subsidiaries of United States Steel that contracts continue to be made for steel rails until Sept. 30 only, at the present rate of $40 a ton, with deliveries in about equal monthly installments to June 10, 1923.

On and after Oct. 1 steel for deliveries through the same period will be contracted for at $43 a ton.

The two weeks' delay in the establishing of the $3 advance is taken to be a means of stimulating orders from railroads under construction so largely increased business would show on the books of the United States Steel Corporation at the end of September.

On behalf of the company it was stated that all other steel prices had been increased and that the present wages are equivalent to those paid in 1915 on which the United States Industrial Board in 1919 fixed the price of rails at $47 per ton, which was reduced by United States Steel last year to $40 a ton.

KICKS AT SIRLOIN STEAK, BOSS GETS IT IN FACE

Customer Also Accused of Throwing Dishes at Proprietor.

Alexander Kaniganski of No. 165 India Street, Brooklyn, was held in $200 bail by Magistrate Liota in Brooklyn, to-day, on a charge of disorderly conduct made by S. Angel Palio, owner of a restaurant at No. 19 Greenpoint Avenue, Brooklyn.

Palio said Kaniganski ordered a sirloin steak in the restaurant and, when it was served, he claimed it was not a sirloin steak. Palio insisted that it was, and Kaniganski hit him in the face with the steak and threw dishes at him, he claims. Kaniganski will be further examined Sept. 18.

LONDON'S MILK MEN RESPECT OUR METHODS

Touring the Health Stations They Admire the Work That Is Done.

Saving of countless children's lives in England through adoption of pasteurization methods used by this city is expected by Ernest A. Evans and A. D. Raymond, representing London Dairies, Limited, the largest London milk distributors, who to-day toured the health stations. They are conducted by Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner, and other local experts.

"New York is far ahead of London in what it is doing for its babies," said Mr. Evans. "It is gratifying to find the same splendid methods are used in the poor centres as in the richer."

FUR FACTORY BURNS IN ELMHURST, WITH LOSS OF $100,000

Chair Shop Also Goes and Old Brewery Plant Is Threatened.

A spectacular fire that could be seen over a wide area destroyed J. Sabino's fur factory and the Willow Reed Chair Company factory in Elmhurst at 6 A. M. to-day, causing a loss estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000. Both were three-story frame buildings surrounded by a number of dwellings, from which about seventy-five persons were driven until the fire was out.

The blaze was discovered on the first floor of the fur factory, in Betts Avenue between Queens Boulevard and Shell Road, by a watchman who had to run several blocks to send in an alarm.

Acting Deputy Fire Chief Kellogg, seeing the danger to the big six-story unoccupied brick Consumers' Brewery building nearby, and other structures, sent in a second, third and fourth alarm, which brought Chief Kenlon from Manhattan, and Deputy Fire Commissioner Thompson and Deputy Chief Davin of Brooklyn.

Inspector Cahalane was in charge of the police reserves, who had a large crowd to handle, including hundreds who came in automobiles. The fire jumped back from the fur factory to the chair factory, directly in the rear in Bueson Street, and stopped.

ENTERTAINED.

(From the Louisville Courier Journal.) "How did you interest that aristocratic old millionaire? He has always been considered a most difficult man to entertain." "Oh, he had the time of his life. We got him busy pitching horseshoes."
